Yep – I've been warned ☺

I know Bob said he liked the last fact sheet he had seen – but we could not remember what chemical it was. Gina do you remember? I'll review this anyway but if anyone has the last one that would be helpful too. The last I could find in Sarah's IRIS file was BaP – attached. Not sure if that is it (I did not share that with Bob yet to check). She didn't have a fact sheet in the file for Libby, so I'm not sure if others are missing as well.

Thanks!

Maureen

Hi Maureen,

Gina (and I think Lou) may have touched based with you regarding the type of IRIS fact sheet that Bob is looking for ("something more scientific that the ones we prepared for Kevin") – and in particular what we should provide for the RDX assessment. I'm attaching a partially updated/slightly modified version of the fact sheet that Lou used to brief Bob on the RDX assessment previously (Sept 2014). Could you provide your reaction to this fact sheet and let us know how you think it should be revised for Bob? What should be added? Deleted? That would be tremendously helpful.

.... And it will give me something to work on from home during our next snow storm!

Thanks so much!
Sue
